

2014 Player Survey Results (18 Responses Received)

Thanks to all that participated in the 2014 Player Survey. Here are the results, with the information to be used to plan activities and merchandise options for 2015. For those who completed a Player Profile we will look to get this updated on the website in 2015. For those who still want to add a Player Profile (it's not too late), click on the link in the Members section.

Website:

17 of 18 players responding confirmed they were still using the website.

There was plenty of feedback on the new Comments Section, as follows:

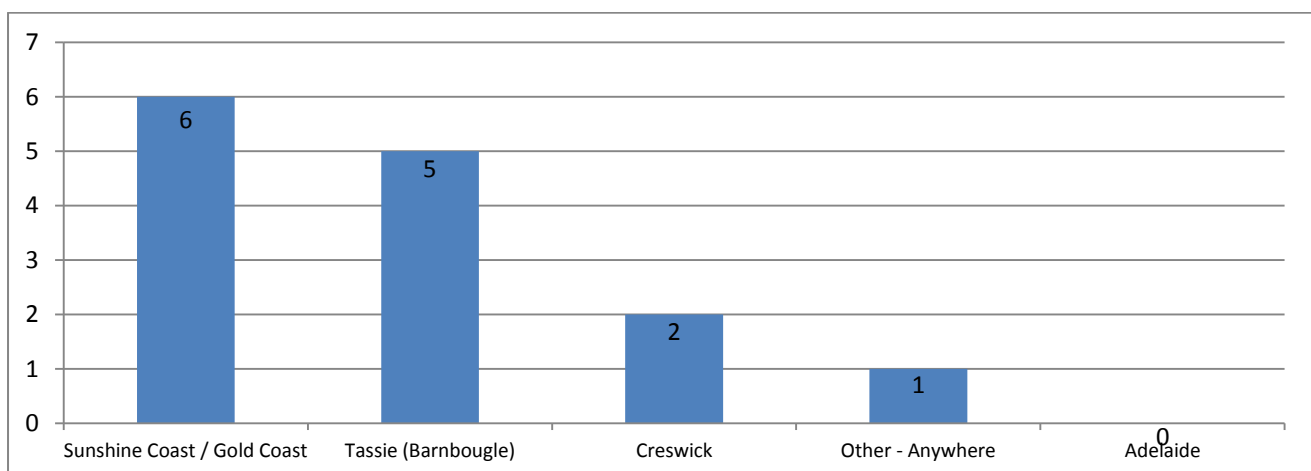

- Excellent just wish i had more time to play golf
- Have not used it yet but a good idea
- OK
- Great Idea for Feedback
- Have not used it, but a great idea.
- Good idea
- What new comments section?
- Have not used it yet
- can't find it
- Useful if members use it regularly
- Have not used it yet, but should have potential.
- Great
- Sorry haven't used it
- Will be fun when more people know about it

And some good ideas that we will look into for 2015 on additions to the website

- Career earnings if possible.
- Open forum sledging
- Perhaps a rules section - Rule of the month.

Queen's Birthday Golf Trip

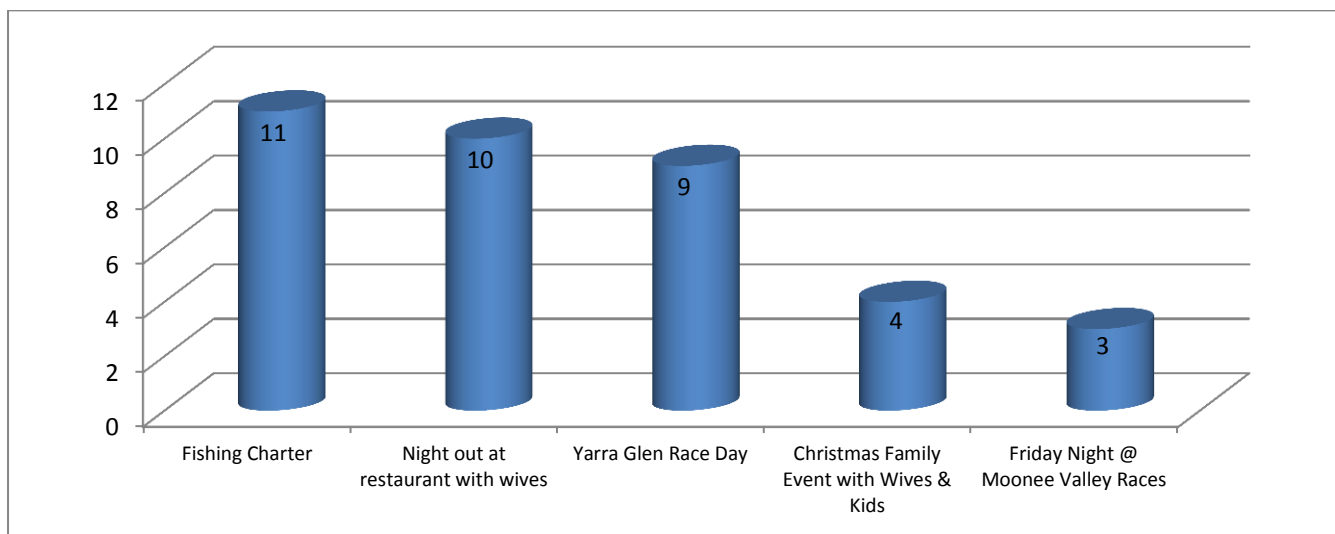

10 players liked the idea of a Queens Birthday Golf Trip away, with the most popular destinations as follows:

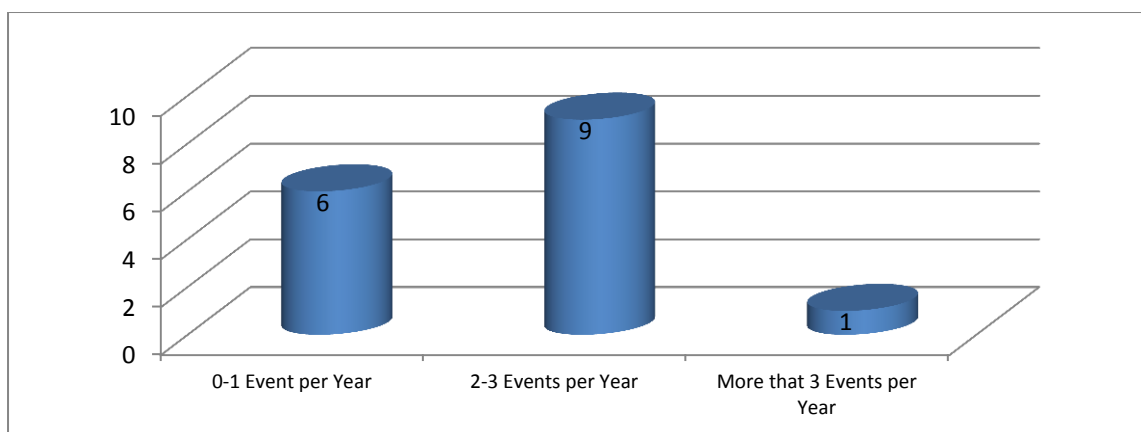

Non-Golf Events:

There was plenty of interest and feedback in club non-golf events, with 15 players showing interest.

Most popular were as follows:

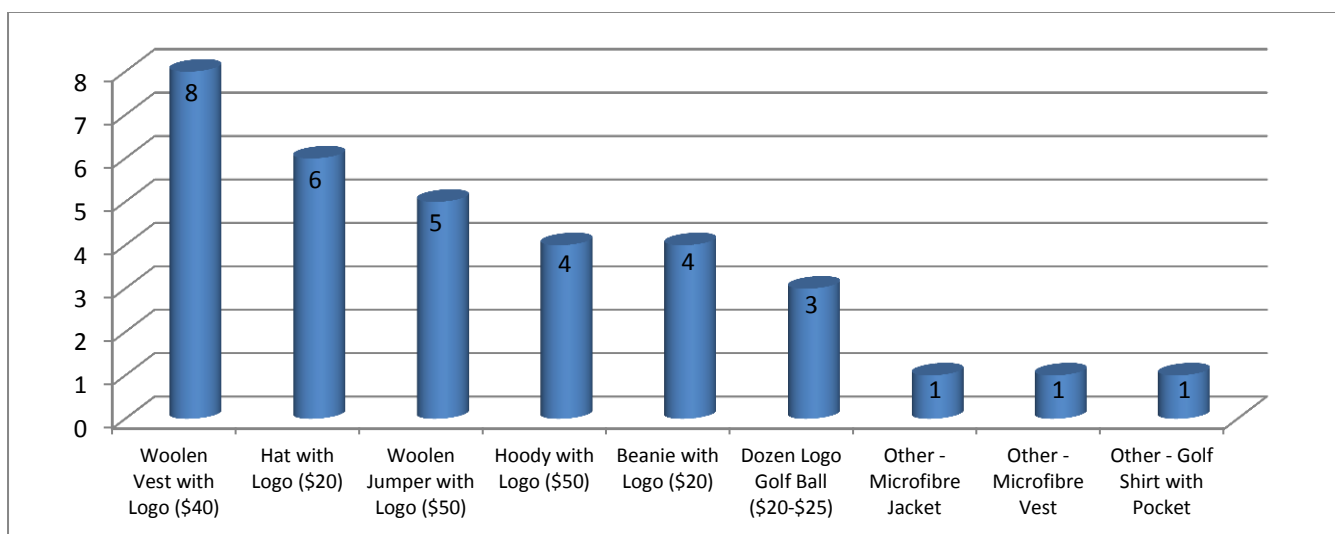

As for the number of events, majority thought 2-3 events was the right number.

Merchandise

Great interest in some new Merchandise, with 17 players surveyed interested in some form of merchandise. Breakdown is as follows:

Will look into the options and report back in early 2015

Suggested Improvements / Feedback:

There were a number of suggested improvements and feedback which is great. Details are below:

- new jumpers
- No, i think it's humming along beautifully
- No more than happy with the way the committee run each years events and would like to add my thanks for their efforts.
- Punters club thrown open to all members on trip away or a team of Two to four put together by members
- Don't change much, good club, traveling along nicely.
- The club is being run extremely well and I would not change a thing. The Committee should be congratulated on the outstanding work in preparing for the Golf Trip!!
- More Realistic Handicaps
- IN MY OPINION CLUB IS RUNNING BETTER THAN EVER WITH MOST MEMBERS WILLING TO HELP WHNEVER IT IS NEEDED
